

Operative C. Morgan.

New Brunswick, N.J.
Oct. 18th, 1926

At 11:30 P.M. operative arrived in the vicinity of the children's play house and took up watch.

At 11:55 P.M. an automobile stopped at the corner of Nichols and Townsend Streets. After waiting about five minutes operative walked towards the automobile just as a young man and lady got out and both walked to the front of Edwin Carpenter's house. The young lady entered same and the young man returned to the automobile and drove away. (license number of this car was K 7313 N.J.)

During the morning operative made a tour around the premises, but did not see any men or automobiles about the place.

At 5:30 A.M. operative returned to town.

Respectfully submitted:
